

WE ARE RECRUITING

PSYCHOLOGICAL WELLBEING PRACTITIONERS (PWPs)

Do you want to help people overcome anxiety and depression using brief psychological interventions that have been shown to work?

APPLY NOW FOR SALARIED NHS TRAINING FUNDED BY HEALTH EDUCATION ENGLAND

We are looking for people with great people skills and a degree in any subject (or proven ability to study at degree level) and the aptitude to train as a PWP to join Improving Access to Psychological Therapies services in Kent, Surrey and Sussex. This is a great opportunity to retrain and progress your career.

WE CAN OFFER

- Fully funded postgraduate training or apprenticeship qualification
- A salary whilst you are training (typically NHS AfC Band 4)
- A permanent job for everyone who passes their training (typically NHS AfC Band 5)
- Further training and professional development opportunities
